PLEASE NOTE

While Inertial Zen Designs will be happy to work with you to reach your Web Design goals, We reserve the right to refuse any project that the company does not feel is a good fit for our Client Portfolio.

Inertial Zen Designs also would like you to be aware that due to a history with this, We have a very strictly enforced policy when it comes to Third Party "Project Consultants".

Inertial Zen Designs refuses to work on any projects where we are asked to be a go between for the customer and any "Project Manager" who is not internal to the Client's Organization. This means that We will not accept requests of overpayment via Credit Card and forwarding the overpayment to a Third Party.
